

Maye Williams

Services for Maye Williams, 89, of Lubbock and formerly of Floydada will be 11 a.m. Monday, at Carr's Chapel Methodist Church, with Reverend Ted Wilson and Reverend Jody Wilson officiating. Burial will be at Carr's Chapel Cemetery under the direction of Calvillo Funeral Home.

Maye passed away on Thursday, Jan. 31, 2008. She was born on Aug. 19, 1918, in Lockney, to the late Mather Carr (Nov. 11, 1959) and Annie Almeda Carr (Aug. 8, 1979). She married Chloma Alton Williams on Dec. 19, 1936 in Lubbock. He preceded her in death on April 23, 1984. Maye was a licensed beautician. She had worked for Irene's beauty shop for a period of time in Floydada. Maye farmed in Floydada for many years before retiring. She was a Charter member of Carr's Chapel Methodist Church, which was founded by her grandfather, William Hardy Carr. Maye had many talents, which she loved to use. As an artist, she loved to paint porcelain plates and to write. She loved to play 42 with her friends at Elmbrook Estates. Maye was preceded in death by a daughter, Sandra Leanne Williams, in 1940.

Survivors include a daughter, Sue Williams of Manhattan, Kan.; three grandchildren, Brent and wife Tami Williams of Wolfforth, Daralyn and husband Mark Jiron of Lubbock, and Kimber Williams of San Diego, Calif. Maye was a great grandmother to Justin Williams and Jason Williams, both of Wolfforth and Kendra Jiron, Kyla Jiron and Kolton Jiron, all of Lubbock.

The Williams family will receive family and friends today from 4 until 7 p.m. at Calvillo Funeral Home, 206 E. 19th Street, in Lubbock.

Mrs. Williams will be in state at Carr's Chapel Methodist Church on Monday from 9 a.m. until service time.

The family requests that memorials be donated to Carr's Chapel, which can be directed to Judy Hollums, P.O. Box 374, Petersburg, Texas 79250.
